Tuesday, August 24. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated August 23.

Ratisbon, August 13.

TH E Elector Palatine has notified to the other Princes and States of the Empire, that on the 23d of June the Emperour gave him the Investiture of the fifth Electorate, the Office of Archi-Dapifer, the Upper Palatinate, and the County of Cham, with all the Lands and Rights to them belonging, as the same were formerly possels'd by the Electoral Palatine House: And that he trusted the said Princes and States would very willingly approve that Restitution, and regulate things accordingly; the same being agreeable to the Treaty of Westphalia: Adding, that if contrary to Expectation it should happen that by the next Peace the Elector of Bavaria should be restor'd to his Dignity, he will then resume his Seat in the Electoral College next after the Elector of Brandenburg. M. Jodoci Deputy of Austria, who is sent to the Imperial Court with the Resolution of the three Colleges of the Empire, for establishing the Electorate of Hanover, is expected back daily with his Imperial Majesty's Ratification of it.

Offend, Aug. 29. The French Army decamp'd from behind the Canal of Bruges, the 26th early in the Morning, and in 8 Columns march'd through Ghent and its Neighbourhood: After some Marches and Countermarches, they fix'd at Melle between Aloft and Ghent, having a Rivulet in Front, and the Causey of Brussels in their Rear. The 27th betimes in the Morning the Batteries agais't Lille began to fire; at which Time Prince Eugene was in the Trenches, accompanied by King Augustus.

Leith, August 16. Yesterday arriv'd in our Road her Majesty's Ships the Rochester, and the Advice-Prize, from the Buoy of the Nore, and brought from the River what Ships were bound for Newcastle, this Place, Montrois, &c. In their Passage they met and attack'd near Newcastle, Five small French Privateers, one of whom of 4 Guns they sunk, but sav'd 23 Men of her Crew, the other 4 made their Escape. They are to Convoy to Newcastle what Ships are bound to the Sound from hence; and at Newcastle there is to be a Convoy for them, and what other Ships are bound to the Sound.

Falmouth, Aug. 19. The 16th sail'd to Cruise, the Neptune and Prince Eugene Privateers of Flushing.

Plymouth, August 20. Yesterday sail'd 2 Dutch Men of War, and the Concordia Privateer, and under their Convoy 4 Prizes and 1 Merchant Ship for Holland. To Day came in the Mary of Rochelle, Peter Devene Master, bound with Salt for Newfoundland, a Prize taken by the Albion Galley from Barbadoes: Came in also 2 Ships bound from Lisbon from London: They parted the 18th in bad Weather, in the Soundings, from the Rupert, War-spighr, Triton, and a Dutch Man of War, with about 180 Merchant-ships &c, from Lisbon. This Evening came in a Ship of Lynn from Oporto; which the 18th in the Evening parted from the above-said Lisbon Fleet, and Scilly then bore from them East North East, 9 Leagues Distance: The Fleet had lain by, and kept together; but several had lost their Yards, and some their Masts.

Dartmouth, August 20. On Wednesday last put into Torbay the Squadron commanded by my Lord Dursely, and this Day they sail'd to the Westward to cruise. They are 6 Sail, and parted from Sir George Byng on the Coast of France.

Portsmouth, Aug. 22. This Day came in a Ship from Lisbon in 23 Days, which on the 18th Instant left 20 Leagues to the Westward of Uthant her Majesty's Ships the Warspight Captain Hicks Commandore, the Rupert Captain Fog, the Triton Capt. Taylor, and a Dutch Man of War of 70 Guns, with a Fleet of English and Dutch Merchant-Ships under their Convoy, the Weather being then bad. Came in also her Majesty's Ship the Ludlow Castle, Captain Haddock Commander, with one Transport from Sir George Byng, whom she left in la Hogue-Bay. Captain Haddock re-took off the Isle of Wight a Ship of Barnstable from Virginia, having on Board about 200 Hogsheds of Tobacco, which was in Possession of the French 9 Days. Some of the Dutch Flyboats from Lisbon are now in sight, so we hope the rest of the Fleet will soon come in.

Yarmouth, Aug. 20. Yesterday sail'd from hence to the Southward her Majesty's Ship the Dunwich, with 8 Sail from Stockdon; and this Day came in from the Northward above 100 Sail of laden Colliers under Convoy of her Majesty's Ships the Fever-sham and Flamborough.

Harwich, August 21. Yesterday and the Day before a great Fleet of laden Colliers pass'd by for the River. This Morning came in the Norwich, with 100 laden Colliers from the Northward.
